CLARENDON TOWN BOARD

Meeting Highlights - July 2023

HIGHWAY/WATER DEPARTMENT REPORT –

Superintendent Tracy Chalker reported the entire length of Taylor Road has been chip sealed; as has Powerline Road between Route 237 and South Holley, Route 237 to Lake Road and Hulberton Road to Fancher Road. Second quarter water reads are complete. Routine maintenance and checks are being performed. The Highway Department continues to mow the town properties and the second road-side mowing is near complete. Clarendon helped Barre, Shelby, Gaines and Holley with projects thru the shared work program; they helped Clarendon with chip sealing. Matt Campbell, Village of Holley and Superintendent Chalker met with Monroe County Water Authority to go over parts of our water system and they toured the Shoremont Plant where our water comes from. Several deer carcasses were picked up by the road and there was one burial at Hillside. Jaxson Shicker was hired to seasonally work in Hillside Cemetery and the highway department was closed for the week of fourth of July. Regarding the project on the water pump house that was approved last month, the Amish company did not have proper insurance; Superintendent Chalker gave two additional proposals he received; Tim Gregoire at $9700.00 and SSC General Contracting at $10,707.89. The board passed a motion to accept the proposal from Tim Gregoire. Councilman Robinson asked if the spigot/stem that sticks up on a lawn for the water tap-in can be lowered back to the ground level; Superintendent replied in the affirmative and said for the resident to reach out to him.

PLANNING BOARD REPORT –

Planning Chairman Dave Griggs submitted the following written report: 06-27-2023 (Regular meeting) Meeting canceled due to insufficient agenda items. 07-11- 2023 (Regular Meeting) Preconference for a potential business, Rick Kluth, 4577 County Line Road. Planning Board members reviewed the proposal (internet sales). Consensus agreement was that the applicant's best fit was as a Home Occupation. After further review of Article VII, Section 704 it was determined that the business as proposed complied with the exception requirements for a Home Occupation set forth in Article VII, Section 704 H. and as such would not be required to get a Special Use Permit at this time. Applicant was informed that if at some point the business changed that he would need to return and have it reviewed again. Modification request to existing Certificate of Non-Conformance, OG Service & Repair, 16179 East Lee Road, Rick Gallo. Mr. Gallo wishes to add electronic waste collection to the current Certificate of Non-Conformance. Planning Board members reviewed the NYSDEC Electronic Waste Collection Site Requirements. No significant issues were noted. A motion was made, seconded and approved to add Electronic Waste Collection to the Certificate of Non-Conformance with the following conditions. Mr. Gallo shall provide documentation to OIO Ierlan from the DEC stating he is an approved collection site. Collection bins shall be removed in a timely manner and the site shall remain in compliance with DEC Electronic Waste Collection requirements at all times.

SD 23-02, pre-conference for a two (2) lot subdivision, Wayne Schiavone, 4310 Bennetts Corners Road. tax id# 88.-3-28.11. Applicant wishes to subdivide an existing parcel of 44.0497 acres by separating an existing house and shop on one five (5) acre parcel, another section of woodland on an eight (8) acre parcel both of which he will retain. The remaining parcel to be available for sale. Survey maps were not yet complete due to personnel delays. To expedite moving the application forward in a timely manner the Planning Board members reviewed the application using Pictometry maps supplied by OIO Ierlan. No significant issues were noted with the proposal. Applicant requested a waiver. A motion was made, seconded and approved to move from a pre-conference to a formal. A motion was made, seconded and approved to approve subdivision contingent on the following items; Survey maps to be created showing all pin markers, minimum of two (2) copies supplied to OIO Ierlan, Deeds and survey maps for each parcel to be filed with the Orleans County Clerk's Office.

HISTORIAN/HISTORICAL SOCIETY REPORT –

Historian Melissa Ierlan submitted the following written report: The Clarendon Historical Society met and filled its slate of officers and trustees in June. We have also had a trustees meeting in July. There are 4 programs scheduled so far. The first being tomorrow night at 7pm, featuring Pat Smith talking about the book she wrote about her husband who was a World War 2 prisoner of war. In August we will host Marlies DiFante again outside under the tent which will be there for our annual town hot dog roast. The Orleans County Historical Association will have a cemetery tour given by myself on August 6th. I am finishing up the restoration of 2 more historical markers. The county historian would like to update the book written years ago which features all of the historical markers in the county. There have been many more added since that time. Should be a fun project that will be done in time for the Bicentennial of Orleans County.

SUPERVISOR REPORT –

Supervisor Dick Moy reminded those present that in August, the town will have free music, hot dogs and drinks from 5PM-7PM at the Historical Society Museum site and the board meeting will begin at 7PM at the Town Hall.

CORRESPONDENCE –

Marchese Computer Products sent solicitation for their services; all in agreement that Bill Downie at V2D can't be replaced! Orleans County Treasurer has sent $99,804.56 in payment for plowing and mowing county roads. Orleans County Treasurer has sent $1055.50 for collection of Solid Waste/Recycling fees in 2023. Village of Holley has sent a copy of its newsletter and the Murray Historical Society sent a notice of its new project of putting together a book on the Holley Marching Bands and Color Guards from 1930 through 2023; they are requesting memories and photos for inclusion. The Town of Huntington has sent a note of thanks for acknowledging the need for a voter's identification process during elections. New York State has sent payment of $30,137.81 for 2022-2023 Snow & Ice costs. Second quarter sales tax revenue was received from Orleans County in the amount of $70,044.89. Correspondence was received from the County Board of Elections with information about the 2024 elections, early voting and budgeting information of approximately $300 per day per election inspector. Geico Insurance sent $4231.68 for damage to a fire hydrant in May. Thank you notes for help from Melissa Ierlan with help in cemetery services were received.

OLD BUSINESS –

The Town Board accepted the proposed agreement from HCH Enterprises in Warwick, RI to write seven grant application for the town at a cost of $10,000; ARPA money will be used for this.

NEW BUSINESS –

The board approved the Independent Contractor/Consultant Agreement with C.O.P. Security, Inc. to provide armed security services for the town court for the year 2024. It was suggested that the Joint Youth Recreation Commission form a 503(c) not for profit status and still have the Village of Holley, Towns of Murray and Clarendon and the Holley School District contribute funding as in the past. Supervisor Moy is looking into the ramifications of such action; to be on August agenda.

GREETINGS ONE AND ALL! I hope everyone is enjoying the summer so far. I just started reading a book about antigravity. It's really interesting. I just cannot put it down! Somebody actually complemented me on my driving today. They left a little note on the windshield. It said "Parking Fine". That was nice. A while back, the government was burning some old money. A one dollar bill and a twenty dollar bill were going to the furnace side by side on a conveyor belt. The one dollar bill says, "Gee, you're a twenty. I bet you've been all over and seen lots of sights." The twenty said, "You know it! I've been to England, France and many other countries. I've flown in airplanes, been to Las Vegas and many, many casinos. What about you, one dollar bill, where have you been?" The one says, "I've been to St. Mary's. Last week I was at St. John's and I even was at St. Mark's and a lot of other churches." The twenty asked, "What's a church?" Here are a few ways for you ladies to tell you're getting older: 1. You can remember when "the net" was something you wore on your hair. 2. You get breakfast out of the medicine cabinet. 3. Doing the 'hustle' means you're on your way to the ladies' room. 4. You finally get it together, then forgot where you put it. 5. You refer to your stockings, girdle and bra as your 'support group'. 6. You repeat gossip because you can't remember it from the first time.

This Month's Riddles

1. Where do savvy cows make investments?
2. Why was the banker upset?
3. What did one pyramid say to the other?
4. What do you call a clone that chews tobacco?
5. What dreams does a plumber have?

Inner Peace: 1. If you can start the day without caffeine. 2. If you can always be cheerful, ignoring aches and pains. 3. If you can resist complaining and boring people with your troubles. 4. If you can eat plain food every day and be grateful for it. 5. If you can understand when your loved ones are too busy to give you any time. 6. If you can take criticism and blame without resentment. 7. If you can relax without liquor. 8. If you can sleep without the aid of drugs.... then you're probably the family dog! "There's a dead beetle in my soup." "I know sir, they're not very good swimmers!" Then there were the two bed bugs that fell in love. They were married in the spring. Don't worry about the future. The present is all thou hast; the future will soon be present and the present will soon be past. Here's to the little song entitled, "She was only a butterfly's daughter and he was the son of a bee". Remember, the bigger the summer vacation, the harder the fall. A sign outside a very caring British Pub read: Do not drop your cigarette butt on the floor. It burns the hands and knees of customers when they leave. Harry asks his friend Larry to help him with something. "I think the blinker signal on my car is broken" he says. "Stand behind the car. When I turn it on, tell me if the blinker's working." Larry situates himself behind the car while Harry gets in the driver's seat and hits the blinker. "Is it working?" he yells back. "Yes!" says Larry. "No! Yes! No! Yes! No! Yes!" According to a news story, if global warming continues, in twenty years, the only chance we'll have to see a Polar Bear is in a zoo. So in other words, nothing is going to change. The new bride wanted everything to be perfect for the Thanksgiving dinner she was hosting for her in-laws. So she called the turkey hotline and said, "I bought a twelve-pound bird. How long does it need to cook" "Just a minute" said the hotline operator paging through her reference book. "Thanks" said the bride as she hung up. I've got a friend who is a lousy golfer but that doesn't stop him from playing. One day on the first hole he teed up, took a couple of practice swings, then swung in earnest and missed the ball entirely. He tried again and missed again. The third time was the charm. He swung again and really missed. "You're right, this is a tough course!" The pastor decides to use one rich parishioner to set an example. "John" he says, "You're a successful businessman. Surely you could contribute more to the building fund." John replies, "My mother needs a nursing home, my daughter just lost her job and my son is starting college. If I can say no to them, I can say no to you too." Two kids on their way to Sunday school when one says to the other, "What do you think about this Satan stuff?" "Well, you remember Santa? This could turn out to be your dad too." About Life & Death Louis Adamic wrote: Living is like licking honey off a thorn. Mark Twain: Let us endeavor to so live that when we come to die even the undertaker will be sorry. Shakespeare: I know of nobody who has a mind to die this year. Did you hear about the undertaker who closed his letters with the words Eventually Yours? "Oswald, that isn't our baby!" "Quiet you fool. It's a better carriage." "I guess I've lost another pupil" sighed the professor as his glass eye slid down the drain. At a party, every time I turned around this guy was kissing my wife. So I stopped turning around. A character parading around town insisted his name is Seven and One-Eighth Flannery. He explained that his parents pulled his name out of a hat! A circus owner caught his animal trainer administering a merciless beating to the most valuable elephant in the troupe. "Stop" roared the owner. "What's the idea of beating that poor animal?" The trainer explained RIMLHY, "He tripped in the middle of his act this evening." The owner cried, "Do you mean to say you're beating him just because he tripped?" "Just because he tripped? No way. He tore the tails off all the other elephants!" A clergyman once assured his congregation, "Every blade of grass is a sermon." Two days later as the clergyman was mowing his lawn a member of the congregation passed by and nodded approvingly. "That's the stuff Reverend! Cut your sermon short." A doctor recently was dispatched to an Army induction center to give antivirus injections. Above the entrance to his cubicle in the dispensary, he tacked this notice: "To save time, draftees will please back in." A character parading around town insisted his name is Seven and One-Eighth Flannery. He explained that his parents pulled his name out of a hat!

Hillside Sketches

Back in 2016, I had the opportunity to meet Ida Brace Cook who was at the time 106 years old. She was in a nursing home in New York City and we traveled to see her. She was very lively when talking about the past and her late husband Gordon. Gordon Cook was descended from the Cook family that once lived in Clarendon. Gordon's family designed their monument which was located on the old side of the cemetery. It was a grand monument and Gordon's father told him that he should also have a grand tall monument so that others would follow suit and the cemetery would be filled with them and would be beautiful. Gordon Cook was a Rotarian for many years and while at some function, he met another Rotarian who was a monument dealer. He had just sold a headstone to Wendell Wilkie who was once a Republican presidential nominee. The monument was designed by a prominent female American sculptor named Malvina Cornell Hoffman. Malvina has works all over the country and in museums such as the Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago. The dealer told him that he would sell it to him for a very reasonable price because he could then direct potential customers to Hillside Cemetery to see it and he would be able to make more sales. Gordon saw the size of it and next thing you know, he bought it. Ida thought it was very expensive but her husband was determined.

QUEEN OF THE BREMEN

by Marlies Adams DiFante

The true story of an American child trapped in Germany during WWII

Wednesday, August 16th

7:00 pm
at the

Clarendon Historical Society

In 1939 five-year-old Marlies Adams traveled with her family from America to Germany so that her mother could visit her terminally ill father. As the SS Bremen leaves New York Harbor with Marlies and her family as passengers, what is intended to be a three-month stay will turn into a seven-year struggle to stay alive. As World War II begins all borders and ports are closed and the Adams family is prohibited from leaving Germany-now a Nazi-controlled country. Narrated with candor and many historical details that bring her memoir to life, Marlies shares the tragic yet inspirational story of how she endured a childhood in wartime Germany.

Soldiers in the Corn

by Eric Weatherbee copyright 2023

"Friends to the end, that's what we will be," Truer words were never spoken between Johnny and me.
We were more like brothers, since the day we were born. We played a thousand childhood games,
But our favorite, was Soldiers in the Corn.

With hickory limbs for rifles we fought the evil armies of Maise, with sabers carved from pine boughs,
We slew medieval dragons day-by-day.

As the years wore on we grew into men, and yet we still thought of war as folly,
We were proud to fight for God and country, as the canons of Fort Sumpter, fired their first volley!

But now we struggle to carry on, as we march across the blood-stained fields of war,
And as we take the lives of other men we ponder, "Did they too play Soldiers in the Corn?"

The year was eighteen hundred and sixty-two, the day September 17th, to be exact,
We were bloodied, tired, and hungry, but our orders were to attack.

And so we left the road on that fateful day at a place called Antietam Creek,
Through the smoke and haze of a man-made Hell, we trampled the corn beneath our feet.

Lead filled the air like a swarm of bees, as blue and gray fired blindly into the field,
And Satan smiled an evil grin as death reaped a bountiful yield!
Johnny and I were lost to each other within that battlefield of corn,
And yet I struggled onward, treading upon bodies ragged and torn!

The stench of death filled my lungs, and the blood-soaked soil caked upon my shoes,
The bullets swathed both corn and men, not caring whom they choose.
As I stumbled out of that field of corn the guns fell silent in that place,
And as I viewed the scene before me, a flood of tears stained my face.

A picket fence lined each side of the Sunken Road, and bodies hung like puppets from its rails,
And above the din of distant battle, the wounded filled the air with their tortured, mournful wails!

I traversed that other-worldly plain of death calling out Johnny's name,
Hoping to find my childhood friend before I went insane!

The dead and dying surrounded me, their tortured souls crying in the wind, begging for forgiveness of all their mortal sins!

And then suddenly I saw Johnny lying there, his broken body bloody and torn,
And as I gazed into his dying eyes he whispered "I-I don't want to play no more,
this game . . . this . . . Soldiers in the Corn."

That was all so many years ago, and for Johnny I still mourn,
But in my dreams he lives again as we play . . . Soldiers in the Corn.

JUST FOR LAUGHS

HOW TO INSTALL A HOME SECURITY SYSTEM:

1. Go to a 2nd hand store and buy a pair of men's used size 14-16 work boots.
2. Place them on your front porch, along with a copy of Guns & Ammo magazine and your NRA magazines.
3. Put a few giant dog dishes next to the boots and magazines
4. Leave a note on your door that reads:

'Hey Bubba, Big Jim, Duke and Slim – I went for more ammunition. Back in an hour. Don't mess with the pit bulls; they attacked the mailman this morning and messed him up real bad. I don't think Killer took part in it but it was hard to tell from all the blood. Anyway, I locked all four of 'em in the house. Better wait outside.
