TID BITS

Geary (Moose) Shenck

Greetings to one and all. Well another month has passed so I guess it's time to get busy and try to find something worth putting on paper. I finally did it. I bought a new pair of shoes with memory foam insoles. No more forgetting why I walked into the kitchen. I have to stop saying, "How stupid can you be?" to my children. I'm beginning to think they're taking it as a challenge. First moron: I read that the tusks of four thousand seven hundred elephants were used last year to make billiard balls. Second moron: Isn't it wonderful that such big beasts can be taught to do such delicate work. The optimist said, "A year from now we will all be begging." The pessimist asked, "From whom?" My friend Rod and his wife were taking a ride in the country. Going down one country back road, they saw a few donkeys in a pasture. Rod asked his wife, "Your relatives?" She replied with a smile, "Yes, by marriage." An unambitious snore is like a slow leak in an old tire. I knew a guest once who was as welcome as a monthly bill. There was a politician who was unable to keep up with his thoughts no matter how slow he talked. Mr. Newlywed: What's wrong with this cake dear – it tastes kind very gritty. Mrs. Newlywed, "Don't be silly darling, the recipe calls for three whole eggs but I guess I didn't get the shells ground up enough. There is a professor who says he finds five different kinds of dumbness. It seems incredible that a prominent man like that should have met so few people. Caution is a most valuable asset in fishing, especially if you're the fish. I never thought I'd be the kind of person who'd get up early in the morning to exercise and I was right.

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES

1. What kind of writer kills off his main character?
2. If you have a bee in your hand, what do you have in your eye?
3. Why did the lady put lipstick on her forehead?
4. What do you call a nun who walks in her sleep?
5. What does a bee suffer from if he visits too many flowers?

My friend Greg would never buy a submarine sandwich because he thought you had to eat it underwater and he is a poor swimmer. A secret is a story you tell to one person at a time. Tomorrow is one of the greatest labor saving devices of today. A mosquito is an insect that makes you like flies better. We still have a landline, but we call it the "cell phone finder." A flea and a fly in a flue were imprisoned, so what could they do? Said the fly, "Let us flee." Said the flea, "Let us fly." So they flew through a flaw in the flue. Doctors have discovered that hay fever can be either positive or negative. Sometimes the eyes have it and sometimes the nose. There are only two kinds of pedestrians, the quick and the dead. A medical journal has the theory that "man" is slightly taller in the morning than he is in the evening. We have never tested this but we have noticed a certain tendency to become "short" by the end of the day. Did you hear about the cannibal who like to eat where they served truck drivers? Did you hear about the fellow who invested in a paper towel company and a revolving door company? He was wiped out before he could turn around. To tell the temperature in summer you can count the number of times a tree cricket chirps in a second and add forty or you can look up at the thermometer. Everything comes to him who waits except the time he lost waiting.

You may not know when you are well off, but the Internal Revenue Service does. When the seamstress asked the weatherman if he wanted his trousers cut long or short he said that he'd like to have them fair in height. The lady in the optometrist office stepped before the doctor who said, "Eyes checked?" She said, "No they're blue." Have you heard the new sheep song – There Will Never Be Another You. And remember, it's foolish to work up a head of steam unless you know what's cooking. A fellow down south was sitting on his porch holding a small piece of rope. "What's that?" asked a stranger. "That's my weather vane," was the reply. "How can you tell the weather with that?" "Well, when it goes to and fro it's windy, when it's wet it's raining." When I was on the farm a city fellow stopped and showed great interest in everything. One thing he asked me was, "How long cows should be milked." I told him, "The same as short ones." Christmas is the time of the year when both trees and husbands get trimmed. Sometimes both get lit up too. A fellow was spinning some wild stories to Tom and some other fellows. He told them how he flew over the Alps with one wing broken, how he discovered gold in Alaska accidentally stumbling over a rock, how he fought a submarine single handed during a raging storm in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean. After he was all done with his wild tales he left his doubting listeners. One of them asked Tom, "What do you think of that guys escapades?" Tom said, "He reminds me of the horns on a steer. A point here, a point there and an awful lot of bull in between. Did you hear about the man who told his neighbor while he was washing his car, "I get seven miles per gallon with this car. My son gets the other twenty." Well I'm running out of gas so I'll either have to rest or eat some chili. My wife said, "Please take a rest."

Joy to me is Christmas time
As I hope for falling snow
To window shop and see the lights
In all their festive glow
To hear the children's laughter
See the enthusiasm in their eyes
While they're patiently awaiting
With wonderment of that surprise
We celebrate this time of year
For birth of our risen Savior
Singing songs of joy to feel Him near
As his love for us will never waver.
By Sheila Hayes Bucher

So that's it for this time.
You all have the Merriest Christmas ever.
Adios and God Bless,
Geary 'Moose' Shenck

Before- & After-School Programs

The TLFC Latchkey program provides supervised care on a regular basis for Brockport and Holley School District children from kindergarten through 5th grade during hours of the day when school is not in session and parents are not available.

Some benefits are:

- Peace of mind that your children are safe and well cared for in a nurturing, safe, and fun environment without the need of being home alone.
- Children who attend the programs have better grades and behavior and often outperform students not in structured programs.
- An opportunity to engage in an organized extracurricular activity outside of the classroom while enhancing the family/school relationship.
- A decreased chance of students engaging in undesirable behaviors.
- Children in afterschool programs often have the opportunity to make friends and build relationships with individuals they would not otherwise encounter.
- A healthier lifestyle in contrast to unsupervised students spending their time home alone watching TV, playing video games, surfing the internet, and eating junk food.

Contact us today to discuss your child's latchkey program.

A Gift you Can Give and Receive

December is filled with so much joy and love that includes cookies, food preparations, travel, gift giving, decorating and celebrations.

The upcoming holidays and winter months can be some of the most difficult times of the year for individuals who are alone. This is why it's the perfect time to think about participating in the Catholic Charities Friendly Phones/Home Visitation Program that is free of charge in Orleans County thanks to a generous private funder.

Are you thinking, I am not sure what this means? It's both a give and take opportunity. You might be that individual 60 years or older, socially isolated, recently more homebound, driving less and finding yourself desiring to be with a friend to play cards or a game, share memories of your life or simply have a conversation. You are a perfect candidate for being a "member". You might be that someone over 21 years of age, able to still drive, and enjoy socializing. You are the perfect candidate for being a "volunteer" for the Catholic Charities Friendly Phones/Home Visitation Program. A willingness to participate and give one hour a week may be just what you need during this time of year.

Winters can be tough here in WNY, but if we have a friend we are looking forward to spending an hour a week with will be one way to make them go faster and not seem so dreary. Here's what you do? Give Peg a call at 343-0614, ext. 18 and she will help you get visiting! By the way, did you get that this is only one hour a week. Give it some serious thought, I bet we can all find one hour a week to reach out to someone and make their day or be that someone and have anticipation for a wonderful hour.

This past month our guest speaker was Jim Schiebel, a Lion from Hilton, who described his collection of 47,000 novelty pins from other Lions Clubs, both in the United States and around the World. On November 7th, we ran the VA Bingo at the Veterans Hospital/Nursing Home in Batavia. Great fun was had with our Veterans, assisting them in playing Bingo, listening to their stories, and providing the refreshments and prizes. We will again sponsor Breakfast with Santa at the Community Center in Holley on Dec. 14, 2019 from 10AM to Noon. Don't forget to purchase, this years fund Raiser, a 911 Sign, a blue metal sign, with white reflective numbers, indicating your house number, which can be installed at your driveway, making it easy for emergency services to locate your resident. An order form, was attached to last months Gazette or it can be obtained at the Clarendon Town Hall. This would make a great Christmas present! One of the twenty organizations the Clarendon Lions Club either assists or donates to, thru our yearly fund raisers is the Westside Challenger Tennis out of Brockport, NY. This organization offers area youngsters with special needs (K-12) a tennis opportunity. The program is designed under the auspices of the USTA (United States Tennis Association) based on the motto: "people of all ages and abilities should have the opportunity to participate in the game of tennis". Participants learn the game in a unique, fun filled, safe environment, provide opportunities for healthy exercise, skill development with the enhancement of self-esteem and self-confidence. The photos show a special needs youngster, Brady, enjoying a tennis game with retired professional tennis player Monica Selles. All are welcomed to our meetings, during the fall, winter and spring months (Sept thru May), held in the basement of the Clarendon Methodist Church, on the second and fourth Wednesday of the month, starting at 6:30 PM for a Pot Luck Supper, 7:00 PM for a speaker from a local organization, followed by our business meeting. ### Why a king in a stable?

I and those of us who celebrate Christmas will be totally enveloped in the wonderful sights, sounds, smells, tastes, and feelings of this holiday throughout the month. Cookies, pies, hams, parties, spices, decorations, lights at night, cool crisp nights, children's eyes, carols, bells, family reunions, Christmas trees, and gifts will become part of our everyday lives. How well we enjoy all of these might depend on how well we can look past our problems and we certainly have a few. Do we have any help?

So a baby was born all those many years ago. So what? Yeah, I know. He was born in a stable, shepherds and wise men came and gave gifts and a big star shone in the sky. How does that help or relate to me—the here and now me?

Me with all those bills—me with a car on its last legs—me with a relentless addiction—me with that spare tire hanging off my stomach—me without a job—me separated from my family—me with that terrible disease—me unable to forgive—me fearful—me lonely—me ugly—and the “no one knows how bad am” me. Can God really be with me?

Jesus or “The Lord Saves” as his name means was also called Emmanuel which the scriptures tell us means “God with us”. Since the times in the Garden of Eden when God walked among Adam and Eve, mankind's relationship with his Creator has been strained, to say the least, by the disobedience of mankind. This caused so much guilt that they built a high wall between themselves and their Lord.

God spoke through Isaiah the prophet promising that the Savior would come and would be known as the “God with us” or Emmanuel and that He would re-establish the links between man and God. Religious scholars waited, filled with great anticipation, for this to come to pass for ages. However, they could never have imagined how much “with us” God would be! His choice of a birthplace is a sign to us all that He is with us, always, no matter what our situation is. He needed to be born where he was; it was absolutely essential.

Bethlehem was a crowded place when Mary and Joseph arrived. It was crowded because of Caesar Augustus's decree that all should return to the city of their birth to register for a census. People, whose lives had been disrupted by the despised Romans, and who knew this meant even more hated taxes, were hardly full of a holiday spirit as they crowded the streets and stretched the facilities of the town to the breaking point.

It was in this stressful and tense atmosphere that Mary and Joseph sought shelter only to be turned away again and again; finally finding shelter in what must have been a very crowded stable. And it was here among the sights, sounds, and smells of a crowded stable that Christ would be born.

Jesus, Emmanuel, would come into our world not among the scents of pines or cinnamon or the wonderful aromas of holiday cooking, but among the scents of musty straw and sweaty animals amid an angry overcrowded city begrudgingly responding to the commands of hated foreign rulers.

I think that the real message of Christmas is that God is with us, God is with us no matter what our condition is or what we've done. He is with us in the dirty stables of our lives—He is with us on the hard dusty journeys we must make—He is with us when we are rejected and have been turned away. So as we sing the wonderful hymns of the season, we should open our hearts and all that we are, even our own personal stables to Jesus, Emmanuel, God, with you now and forever. So, why a king in a stable? Hill Bill
